

William Luyinda
CEO, Akorion Ltd.

William Luyinda is a young entrepreneur of 28 years old who believes in customer value and jobs creation especially for fellow youth. This spirit motivated him to cofound Akorion Company LTD an ICT for Agriculture Company and Lacel Technologies LTD an ICT consultancy firm. He is currently the CEO of Akorion Company LTD the fastest growing company digitizing the agricultural value chain to provide better and efficient production, marketing and financial services to farmers and agribusinesses and currently working with over 62,000 farmers and 500 youth in Uganda. He is also a non-executive director at Lacel Technologies LTD a company that develops ICT solutions that find a home in our society. William is a qualified System analyst and holds a Bachelor Degree in Computer engineering. He has skills in business strategic planning, product development and management, team and business leadership, project management, managerial finance, digital signal processing, computer networks, computer programming, software and application development.

Media partner:
Handelsblatt
Substanz entscheidet.

